

Assistant Property Manager for Premier Storage located in Issaquah!

Who We Are -

Premier storage is not just storage it's Premier Storage, Issaquah's newest self storage choice for an awesome, fast pace fun working environment with opportunity for growth!!!

Who You Are –

Upbeat, fun, problem solver, great communicator, people person you get the idea! If that's you – come join our team!

We are seeking a part-time Assistant Property Manager with great customer service, sales and organizational skills to join our team in the lease up and operations of our newest self storage property located in heart of Issaquah!

Enjoy What You Do Every Day -

Customer service and sales are a top priority -- do you have an upbeat personality and a natural "A" game communicating with people?

Maintain store appearance, product presentation and storage area cleanliness

Create and establish tenant relations through leasing, customer billings and accounts, preparing reports, maintaining tenant compliance with property policy

Accounting duties including tenant rent collections, late notices, daily accounting reconciliation and cash management

Work closely with store manager, regional supervisor regarding leasing, operations, marketing, accounting and financial performance

Opportunity for training, career growth, and including up to full time hours!

Bring Your Talents -

3+ years of experience in retail sales, self-storage, apartment/property management, sales or customer service

Microsoft Office Suite and Outlook

Be flexible to work 3 days a week including some weekends

Pass background check

Compensation and Rewards -$16.00 - $17.00 per hour DOE, plus paid Vacation, paid sick leave, and Bonus potential!

Join Our Team

We are happy to review your qualifications – submit your resume noting Premier Storage Issaquah in your reply!

EOE